PSALM 106

Praise the LORD!

Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good,
for His steadfast love endures forever!

Psalms 106:1

PRAYER POINTS

- Give thanks and praise to the LORD for His goodness and His mercy that endures forever. Thank Him for hearing your cries and giving you His compassion when you call on Him.
- Ask God to help you model a personal walk with Christ and to disciple the next generation so they, too, will know God, His great works, and have their own relationship with the Lord.
- Ask God to help you identify any ways you may be forsaking His Word and to identify any idols or false saviors you may be chasing after. Repent and return to Him with your whole heart.
- Take time to remember God's enduring love and faithfulness and that He not only saves you, but sustains you and will complete His work in you. Thank Him and praise Him that you can trust Him to keep His promises and that He is faithful, even when you are not.
